

I am concerned about the LPFM service displacing a radio station translator for K-LOVE in my community. This station is a valuable service for our area and many others. If this station is displaced then we will not have this genre of broadcast th available to us on any other station in the area. I believe that this radio programming and option serves greatly the public interest in providing a valuable moral alternative to the "shock" and vulgure programing on many other stations.